The annual Children's Christmas Party will be held from noon-4 p.m., Dec. 7 at the ALC for all ages.

All AEDC families are invited – active duty military, civil service, contractors, National Guard, Reserves, retirees and other eligible users.

Santa is scheduled to arrive at 1 p.m. by floatplane on Woods Reservoir then ride by sleigh to the club. Santa and his elves will give out gifts to all the children beginning at 2:30 p.m. It is important to sign up so the elves bring enough gifts.

In addition to the various activities is a wide selection of food to include hot dogs, hamburgers, chips, cookies, ice cream, cotton candy, Italian ice and more.

Santa and Mrs. Claus have a number of special guests this year to include Buddy the Elf, Frosty the Snowman, Rudolph, the Grinch, Shaggy & Scooby Doo just to name a few.

Both mailboxes will be moved to the party for the letter writing activity.

MISSION AUDITION: Air Force Entertainment launches new talent search

In an effort to find the top talent in the Air Force, Headquarters Air Force Services, Entertainment Branch, is launching a new Worldwide Talent Search. Vocalists, instrumentalists, dancers and non-musical talent such as comedians, dramatists and magicians are encouraged to submit an application and audition video. Eligible members with technical skills such as audio, lighting, staging, video and drivers are also being recruited. First and second place trophies, fondly called "Roger and Wilco" will be awarded in up to seven performing categories. Contestants will also compete in various performance arts-related programs including dance and musical auditions. These events tied with the contest will help evaluate the talent potential of each contestant for possible nomination to the 2009 Tops In Blue team.

Christmas Card Lane entry deadline is Nov. 28

The CAC is hosting the annual Christmas Card Lane competition. All squadrons, groups, divisions or offices are invited to create a life-sized greeting card on 4’x8’ plywood. The CAC will provide the plywood so groups can concentrate on designing their holiday message or capture their staff in holiday situations. There are no limits to creativity but anything in addition to the 4 foot x 8 foot plywood is at the group’s expense. The original plywood provided must remain intact and be returned upon completion of the competition. If electricity is required groups will need to provide their own power source. Cash awards will be presented in the form of Services credit to be used for the group at a Services location of your choice – Arnold Lakeside Club function, Arnold Golf Course breakfast, luncheon or golf outing, Crockett Cove campout/cookout, etc. First place will receive $300 Services credit, second place will be $200 and third place $100. All cards will be displayed along Westover Road. Entries are due to the CAC Nov. 28 to allow time to post entries before the Children’s Christmas Party. Call 454-6084 to arrange for pickup of plywood and to register the entry.

This program is designed to encourage kids to participate and have more fun playing the game. The course is based on the concept of shorter holes whose distances are suited to young player’s ability levels. Course yardages reward improvement while reducing the frustration that often plagues the beginning golfer. Another goal of this program is to encourage parents and kids to come to the course together. Call or come by Arnold Golf Course for more information.

Who says there’s no such thing as a free lunch? Mulligan’s Grill has started a lunch punch card program. Patrons can get a free lunch after making five purchases of $4 or more.
